Lib. R. R.

First they say with a preface

Wee are glad that the Kings Governo<sup>rs</sup> of Maryland & Virginia have sent you hither to Speak with the Maques, as also that the Governo<sup>r</sup> gen<sup>l</sup> hath been pleased to destinate & appoint this place to Speak with all nations in peace, findeing p. 133
this a fitt place for the same, for which we doe returne his honour hearty thanks, especially that his honour hath been pleased to grant you the priviledge for to speak with us here, seeing that the Governour gen<sup>l</sup> & we are one, & one heart, & one head, for the Covenant that is betwixt the Governo<sup>r</sup> gen<sup>l</sup> & us is inviolable, yea so strong that if the very thunder should break upon the Covenant chain, itt would not break itt asunder.

Wee are likewise glad that we have heard you speak, & now we shall answer. If in case any of our Indians should injure any Christians or Indians in your parts, or your Christians or Indians doe any damage to our Indians, we desire that on both sides the matter may be composed, & that which is past to be buryed in oblivion.

They say farther, that the Sennekes were upon their journey to come hither with six hundred men but for feare turned back again. but we were not afraid to come here, doe give thereupon a drest Elk skinn and a beaver.

2<sup>dly</sup> Wee have heard you speak, & now we shall answer unto your propositions. You have said that all which is past formerly shall be buryed & forgott, which we doe likewise, holding ourselves innocent of any injury done to any of the nations, Maryland or Virginia, but have allwayes Spoke with one another in friendshipp & have likewise received many favours, bread & other provisions, for which we humbly thank you And if any doe accuse us of haveing done any injury or damage there, they doe bely us, we haveing been but twice there, doe give thereupon two beavors.

3<sup>dly</sup> If any difference should arise betwixt you, yo<sup>r</sup> Indians & our Indians, we desire that there may not imediatly a warr arise upon the same, but that the matter may be moderate & composed betwixt us And we doe engage for our parts to give satisfaction to you for any evill that our Indians might happen to doe, & doe give thereupon two beavers.

method of a new Covenant made, which they doe undertake to hold firm, been the first tyme they have seen any author-
