

The Taxing of Costs in the Respective causes that came Lib. R. R. to a period the last Provincial Court was referred unto this day, but his Excellency & Council have thought fit to referre the same, untill the next Council day which is to be the 25th of this instant January.

John Blomfeild that married the widdow of Luke Barbor gentl deceased being ordered this day to attend his Excellency & Council with the writings belonging to the said barbors Estate, who accordingly this day appeared, and surrendered the said writings up to his Excellency & Council, who Delivered the same into the hands of the Clerke of the Council, and ordered him to Keepe them in his hands untill the next Council day at which time they will take further order in the p<sup>r</sup>mises.

By his Excellency the Cap<sup>t</sup> Generall

Maryland Ss.

Whereas I am informed by Robert Ridgely Deputy to S<sup>r</sup> Willm Talbot Baronett Principall Secretary of Maryland that Robert Ellis a Covenant Servant to the said S<sup>r</sup> Willm Talbot (and by the said S<sup>r</sup> Willm left under the said Ridgleys Comand as an under Clerke in the office) hath sevrall tymes p<sup>r</sup>sumed to absent himselfe from the said Ridgelys Employ<sup>m</sup>t in the Secretaryes office without so much as asking leave of the said Ridgely and is now at this tyme absent and as the said Ridgely is informed is gone up to Newtowne or thereabouts without any leave or Lycence from the said p. 15 Ridgely And whearas it is Consonant to Reason that S<sup>r</sup> Willm Talbot wholly Instrusting the said Ridgely in the said office, he is to be Accomptable for all transaccōns therein, and to see the Publique bussines dispatched, I doe therefore hereby Order and Authorize the said Ridgely, if the said Ellis shall at any tyme absent himselfe hereafter from the said Employ<sup>m</sup>t without leave from the said Ridgely To send a Hue & Cry after him as after a Run Away servant, and if he shall Refuse to obey the Lawfull Commands of the said Ridgely, then the said Ridgely to torne him out and hyre such other p<sup>r</sup>son in his place as to him shall seeme meete, Given under my hand the 4th of September 1672

Charles Calvert

By his Excellency The Cap<sup>t</sup> Generall.

Maryland Ss.

fforasmuch as I have graunted licenses to severall Locus sigilli p<sup>r</sup>sons within this Province for the Keeping of a publique Ordinary which licenses were restrained to only a