

Lib. R. courseing concerning the troubles in England. The said ffendall asked this Deponent whither it was true that a man of Warr was comeing in for the Lord Baltimore to w^{ch} this Deponent replied that it was soe reported, and that there were two ffriggatts ready but were not yett come, the said ffendall again said what need they send any men of warr for this Countrey, for if they will but send two or three Lines to me I engage to secure my Lord Baltimore and send him home saveing that charge, for further said the s^d ffendall I Durst engage with thirty or ffourty men to Doe it, And that two or three Daies before he had been over with the Governo^r with whom he had had a greate Deale of Discourse, and amongst the rest were talkeing of the business of poysoning the people at S^t Maries, and that he the said ffendall told the Governo^r that he beleived it was a thing acted and Designed by the Papists against his Hono^r and that he would write home to England concerning the same; And the s^d ffendall further said that he had suffered much heretofore, but now he hoped the time was comeing that he might right himself. And further this Depon^t saith not.

Jurat. Ap^h 29: 1679:

ffrancis Partis.

Summons also issued forth to Cap^t John Harris requireing him to make his appearance also this Day in the words foll. viz.

Maryland ss:

You are hereby strictly charged & Comāded forthwith upon sight hereof to make yo^r psonall appeareance before his L^{spp}: the right Hon^{ble} the Lord Prop^{ty} and his Councell at
 p. 82 Manahowickes Neck to answer unto such matters and things as shall be there on behalf of his said L^{spp}: propounded unto you, whereof faile not as you will answer the contrary at yo^r perill Dated the 29th Day of Aprill 1679:

To Cap^t John Harris Comād^r

of the Shipp Dover.

Signed p Ord^r JL. Cl. Consil.

These.

Joshua Doyne of the County of S^t Maries being also required to give in his Evidence upon Oath Examined Deposited.

That sometime in the yeare 1677: he being at Cap^t ffendalls house and there sitting by the fire side, the said ffendall entered into a discourse concerning Coll. Jesse Wharton saying that he had been very unkindly Dealt with by him, that he had been kept und^r by the Lord Baltimore, the Chancelo^r and the said Wharton, and that he did verly beleive if said