Came Maquata King of Mattawoman and gave the Lord Proprietary to be informed, that he was in great danger of being destroyed by the comon Enemy, and therefore feared his Owne life, if the Pamunckye Prisoner were sett at liberty; That the Matchoaticke Indians had a mind to come over to his ffort and that he doth beleive there will be many Indians (whether enemyes or ffreinds he knowes not but feares the worst) in his Quarters ere long, and therefore desires to know his L^{opps} pleasure how he shall demeane himselfe towards them as well for his owne security as the security of the English. And he further shewed that since his L^{opp} was going for
