

very apprehensive of fatal sickness, indeed I fear that their c. s. c. scanty cloathing will subject them to severe pleurisies

I am, Gentlemen, Your most obed^t Serv^t
The Honble the Council of Safety of Maryland Th. Johnson Jun^r

[Officers in Linganore Battalion.]

David Moore, Capt.	Henry Baker, Captain
Eph. Howard } Lieut ^{ts}	George Cobble 1 st Lieut.
Upton Sheredine }	Anthony Lindsey 2 nd Lieut.
George Beckwith, Ensign	Andrew Eggart, Ensign.

James Wells, Capt.
William Winchester 1st Lieut.
James Winchester 2nd Lieut.
John Fowler Ensign.

Henry Stephenson, Capt. The commissions came
Charles Stephenson, 1st Lieut. right except in the description
Henry Myers, 2nd Lieut. of the Battalion. Col^o Upton
William Stephenson Ensign Sheredine's Battalion.

Simon Meredith, Capt. Charles Warfield 1st Lieut. Abm.
Moore, 2nd Lieut. and William Gilmore ensign.

William Bresshears, Capt. Charles Stevens, 1st Lieut. Rezin Bresshears 2nd Lieut. Philip Turner Ensign.

These commissions right except as above.

Basil Dorsey, Capt. Joseph Hobbs 1st Lieut. resigned, Nathan Manyard 2nd Lieut. Jacob Coonce Ensign.

Capt. Hopple's company which was appointed by the Committee as part of the Linganore Battalion is gone I understand, with Col^o Bruce's Battalion.

Field officers recommended by the officers as I mentioned in a former letter, Viz.

James Wells, first Colonel, David Moore, Lieut. Col^o Eph.
Howard, 1st Major, Joseph Wells 2nd Major, Henry Stephenson Q^r Master.

By the Committee

Upton Sheredine Col^o David Shriver, Lieut Col^o David
Moore, Eph. Howard, Majors, Charles Warfield Q^r M^r

Field officers appointed :

Upton Sheredine, Col^o refuses, James Wells Lieut Col^o
David Moore 1st Major, Eph. Howard, 2nd Major, refuses.
Charles Warfield, Quarter Master, he says he'll act if agreeable to the Battalion, if not will resign. I wanted him to say yes or no in so many words, but could not get him to say so.
He appears to be a good man.