[Council to W. Lux.]

In Council Annapolis 19th March 1778.

Sir

Inclosed you will receive a Letter which came under Cover to the Governor from the War & Ordnance Office. The Subject of your Letter is mentioned in his. We have never been able yet to obtain an Account of the Public Lead which was in the Baltimore Magazines or what of it remains. We wish you would make Enquiry and, if there now remains more than four Tons, receive one Half of it and send it forward, sending us a Receipt, on the Continental Account, unless any Quantity is to be purchased in Baltimore, and we hear there is if there is it ought to be purchased for the Continent at once and ours kept for our own Use, for we are so short in that Article, that we ordered a Purchase of a Ton or two on the Sea Board at 5/ p^{lb} Col^o Jos. Dashiell tells us that the Goods purchased by Col^o Simpson, are coming by land, as well as ours, to Cambridge, and that it is by no Means advisable to trust the Goods under your Direction below, by Water.

[Gov. Johnson to Delegates.]

March 19th 1778.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates

I herewith lay before you a Resignation of the Auditors of Accounts delivered to me in Council the nineteenth Day of last Month. The Council and I, hoping you would have Met, soon afterwards agreeable to Adjournment, thought it most advisable not to appoint Auditors in their Stead, who could scarcely have proceeded to Business before the Appointment would have devolved on you. Many Accounts have been
