at which time came M^r John Dent and personally appeared according to an ord^r of this board of the twelfth instant;

The Deposition of Thomas Perry then taken was read unto him, and the said Dent in answer saith that what he had formerly upon oath declared concerning Cap^t ffendall was the whole of what he then remembered, but upon his returne home his wife putt him in mind of some things which he had then forgotten but upon her information he did really call to mind the same, and thereupon applied himself to M^r James Bowleing a Justice of the peace, whose advice was that Cap^t ffendall haveing already recd: his tryall and Sentence thereon, he the said Dent need not further trouble himself therein—the summe of what he then omitted, and since hath remembered he is now ready to declare upon his oath, being as foll (viz)

The Deposition of John Dent upon oath examined Saith.

That what he had forgotten to Declare upon his oath last November Court concerning Cap^t ffendall was, that at the ffunerall of M^r Hatch being in discourse with the s^d ffendall, he the said ffendall asked him this Dep^t whither there were noe way to putt a stopp to his L^{sps} calling in the Armes (which armes this Depon^t doth suppose to be those armes which were entrusted by his L^{sdp} amongst the Inhabitants of Charles County for their Defence) whereunto this Deponent replyed that he the s^d ffendall would never cease untill such tyme as he suffered for such words.

Jurat 31: Die Octobris 1682
