

Lib. R. R. R. Saying why should not wee pole my Lord as well as he poles us; and in the Company nameing my Lord, the said Carvile answered My Lord a ffart; it was asked the said Carvile, why a ffart, the s^d Carvile replyeing there is little difference betweene him and a ffart; at the same time the s^d Carvile Said that he was as good a Mann as my Lord, what are the Calverts? My ffamily is as antient as the Calverts, And further this Dep^t saith not

Juravit die et Anno p^ddict
Coram me W^m Digges

Jos: Pile

M^r Robert Carvile called & his answer demanded, he Saith that he was not himself but wanted his reason at that tyme when this discourse happened, which he cannot remember came from him but Sayeth not any thing in his defence against the aforegoing evidences, which he knoweth to be of greate credit, but submitteth himself to his L^{spps} mercy

His L^{spp} commandeth his Secrys to strike him off of the Roll, and that he be not Suffered to plead any more in any Court within this Province; that he be bound to answer his abuse to his L^{spp} at the next Prov^l Court and give good security for his good behaviour in the meane tyme, to be taken by the Sheriffe.

Ordered also that the Deponents Joshua Doyne, James Bowling Thomas Mudd, and Joseph Pile Enter into Recognizance of twenty pounds sterling to give in their Evidence ag^t the s^d Carvile at the next Provinciall Court.

Accordingly came Capt^a Joshua Doyne, Cap^t James Bowling, M^r Thomas Mudd, and M^r Joseph Pile and acknowledged themselves to owe and stand justly indebted unto the R^t hon^{ble} the Lord Prop^{ry} in the full and just Summe of Twenty pounds Sterling each of them to be leavyed of their goods and Chattells Lands and Tenem^{ts} to the onely vse and behoofe of his said L^{spp} his heires and Successo^{rs} upon condition that if they and either of them shall be and p^{sonally} p. 16 appeare before his L^{sps} Justices of the Prov^l Court at the next Provinciall Court to be holden at Battle Towne in Pottuxen River on the second Tuesday in ffeb^{ry} next to testifye on behalf of the R^t hon^{ble} the Lord Prop^{ry} the truth of their knowledge against the said Robert Carvile then the foregoing Recognizance to be void and of noe content otherwise to be of full force power and vertue in Law; And therewith they say they are content.

Produced and ordered to be read the following Deposition of William Simpson and Mary his wife against Thomas Carvile of S^t Maries County (viz.)