

us, and the people of Maryland, and be also a meanes wholly Lib. R. R. R. to remooove all jealousies from the English which the late Actions of the said Prisoner may have wrought in them towards their Indians, If the said King will Comānd some of his owne Subjects to be the Executioners of such Judgem<sup>t</sup> and sentence as you shall upon a full heareing of all matters & passages think convenient to pass upon the said Prisoner ; and this (if possibly you cann) to be performed in the presence of the said King; but in case of their refuseall, then your sentence to be Executed by the Sheriff of the County who is hereby Authorised and Impowered as also willed and required to performe the same.

3<sup>dly</sup> And if you find the s<sup>d</sup> King and his greate men inclinable (as wee are informed they arc) to have the s<sup>d</sup> prisoner banish'd to some remote parts beyond the Seas, you are then to lett that be the other part of your sentence upon him ; but in case they are not soe inclined as afores<sup>d</sup> and that you think it not prudent nor Safe for the Province to banish him peremptorily without their consents, you are then to moove it to the said King and his greate men what security or way they will propose, that the English may remaine Satisfied for the future, that the said Indian prisoner will not out of Malice and revenge act any further mischiefe on the persons or Estates of the English of this Province.

Adding that you are obleiged and must require such Satisfaction herein, as assure the English there will be noe further breach of the Articles of peace, which is (and by them ought to be Esteemed) a greater Concern to them then to the Inhabitants of this Province.

4<sup>thly</sup> And lastly when you shall have fully Executed yo<sup>r</sup> Comission pursuant to these yo<sup>r</sup> Instructions, you are then to cause your proceedings to be fairely writt by your Clark, and by him transmitted under a Covert to our Secrys for the tyme being that due Record thereof may be kept in their Office of what shall be done herein.
