

Lib. R. R. R.

Judgem<sup>t</sup> to be whipped

Court. Gives Judgem<sup>t</sup> that Poh Poh Caquis the Indian prison<sup>r</sup> be carried to the whipping post, and have twenty Lashes laid on his bare back, and after that he be again brought to the barr.

Court. Ordered the Interpreter to tell the Indians that it will be greate Satisfaction to his L<sup>sp</sup> to make it appeare to him that they doe in noe waies countenance the villanous act of the Prisoner, if they will Command one of their owne Subjects to execute the sentence.

p. 68 Indians. After some small reasoning, they commanded one of their greate men (viz.) Wewohquap to execute it.

The Indian Prisoner again brought to the barr.

Court. Ordered the Interpreter to tell the Indians that it is the custom of the English, that after punishm<sup>t</sup> they must putt in security not to act the like again or any such like mischiefe, and ask them what way they will prescribe to secure this prisoner from revenge, or doeing any more mischiefe to the English for the future.

Indians. King Ababco, and King Tequassino engage their words for the prison<sup>rs</sup> good behaviour forever hereafter, and Ababco told the prisoner he may be thankfull that the English was soe favourable and kind to him.

Court. Ordered the Interpreter to tell them that this passing their word is not sufficient, for that he may notwithstanding doe further mischiefe, we desire to know what custody they will keepe him in, that may make him incapable of acting the like again.

Indians. Said they did not know how to secure him.

Court. Proposed as the Safest way as well for them as his L<sup>sp</sup>: and the English, to transport him into some part beyond the Sea, as a villain not fitt to be trusted here, without danger of haveing the peace broke.

Indians. They cann say noe more then Ahatsawop had said formerly that they left it to his L<sup>sp</sup>: if it be his L<sup>sp</sup>s will to transport him, they will say noe more in it; but desire they may be disobleiged from their words, and that we would looke to keepe the prisoner safe.

Judgem<sup>t</sup> to be banished

Court. Give Judgem<sup>t</sup> that the prisoner be banished into some remote part beyond the Sea, where his Lordship shall appoint