

Lib. R. R. R. 2 Clock, on ffriday night following the murder was Committed, and the body kept privately on board till Saturday night before the very Servants of M^r Rousbys house had any knowledge thereof untill it was brought a shoare. That by vertue of his Commission the Command^r of the Ketch tooke upon him to command one Capt. Doebury Command^r of a M^rchant mann then in the said River together with the said Allens Brother to goe on shoare to s^d Rousbys house and secure his goods under lock and key and to bring the keys aboard to him

Coll Talbott to be demanded of the Governm^t of Virginia &c

The proceedings of the said Coll Henry Darnall and Major Nicholas Sewall in this affaire being approved on by the board It was Resolved that, if the said Cap^t Allen should Offer to carry away the said Coll Talbott a prisoner into Virginia (as he had given out) demand should be made by this Governmt of that Governm^t for the delivery up of the said Prisoner to be tryed here where the fact was committed, and that a Lett^r for that purpose be writt to the Lord Effingham, desireing him also together with the prisoner to send over such persons belonging to the said Ketch as cann give any Evidence against the prisoner upon his tryall

M^r Vansweeringen Compl^t ag^t Cap^t Allens men.

Came M^r Garratt Vansweeringen of the City of S^t Maries and complained of severall insolencies and injuries done him by Cap^t Allens men when they came a shoare there in October last to w^{ch} he made oath in manner foll (viz.)

The Deposition of Garrat Vansweringen gentl one of the Aldermen of the City of S^t Maries

About the 20th day of October soe neare as I cann guess, I came from my plantation being on horse back, I mett with a party of Seamen within the City of S^t Maries going toward M^r Lynes, I asked them from whence they came, they answered me very roughly from home, whereupon I askd them some other questions what they were but could gett noe other answer of them then as is said before.

But meeteing with two or three of the said Crue with musketts upon their shoulders, and those men heareing me question them that went before, they told me we belong to the Mann of Warr, I ask'd them againe who is your Cap^t? and they replied Cap^t Allen, and soe I went my way, and parted from them.