Nicholas Gayskill aged thirty six yeares or thereabouts p. 163 sworne and examined saith that being a Servant to M^r Cordea at his Ordinary at S^t Maries, there came about Eight of Cap^t Allens men (some of them armed) peremptorily into the house, where they fetched wood to make a fire, and some water, which they sett on to dress some meate and Cabbidges which they had; that the Dep^t asked them whither they brought Cabbidges from on board? noe they said, they had them from that mans garden, pointing to M^r Vansweeringens garden; that the Dep^t told them that they had better goe to M^r Bakers, where their Cap^t had been and had borrowed a horse, that notwithstanding they staied still at the said Cordeas house; And the Deponent being then not well, and lyeing upon the bed, heard them talk of killing a sheepe, that some of them said, then doe it at once, and make noe noise of it;
That this Dep^t came to them, and said noe pray doe not kill the honest mans sheep, and further saith not

To the hon^{ble} his L^{sps} Councill

The humble Petition of John Woodward of Dorchester County.

Sheweth.

That at a Prov^l Court holden at the City of S^t Maries the sixth day of October last past, William Crabb Esq^r and S^r Richard Crump Kn^t pl^{ts} obtained judgem^t against your pet^r Def^t for a very considerable summe of money, that the said Judgem^t for diverse reasons which he is able to make appear was erroneously obtained & yo^r pet^r thereby much injured,

He therefore humbly prayes your Hono^{rs} to grant him Supersedeas scir fa: and his L^{sps} writt of Error^r to have the same to a hearing before his L^{sp} in his upper house of Assembly at the next Gen^l Assembly to be holden here

And he shall pray &c^a
