

Lib. R. R. R. replied he knew not the name of the Lord Prop<sup>ty</sup> nor would obey any One in or und<sup>r</sup> that name, nor noe other name but Kings, To which the s<sup>d</sup> Governo<sup>rs</sup> or one of them made answer that they came in noe other name, nor by any other Authority but what was derived from the King or words to that Effect, and thereupon produced a Cobby of my Lords Charter, but notwithstanding severall reasons urged for the delivery of the said Talbott, Allen refused the delivery of him, and soe the said Dep<sup>ty</sup> Governo<sup>rs</sup> went ashoare; afterwards the said Allen caused me to stay to drink a bowle of punch with him, which this Dep<sup>t</sup> did; The said Allen sayed that now my Lords Charter was not worth a pinn, and that there were a greate many of hungry Courtiers that would jump at the news of Rousbys death, being killed by the hands of Coll Talbott, being a man Intrusted by my Lord, and that it was noe doubt but they would doe my Lords business with the King, and soone after this Dep<sup>t</sup> went ashoare. After which this Dep<sup>t</sup> had occasion to goe into Virginia, and at the house of Ralph Wormeley Esq<sup>r</sup> this Dep<sup>t</sup> mett with the said Allen, and the said Allen sayed that notwithstanding all that Maryland could doe, he had brought Talbott along with him, This Dep<sup>t</sup> made answer none in Maryland endeavoured in the least to hinder it, the said Allen made answer it was well they did not, for if any had, he would not spare man woman nor child, but lay the whole Countrey desolate, and further the said Allen

p. 175

sayed he doubted not but that he would bring Maryland under that Governm<sup>t</sup> of Virginia, This Dep<sup>t</sup> made answer that it would be well for the said Allen to govern his tongue now he was on shore, for although he huff'd people on board, he must not expect to doe soe on shoare, upon w<sup>ch</sup> discourse Allen became very friendly and kind in all Offices of kindness to me, and further saith not

Jurat coram Concil 3<sup>o</sup> Die
Decemb: 1684:

Ant: Underwood

J Llewelin Clk:

Thomas Jones of Somm<sup>r</sup>sett County in the Province of Maryland Pl<sup>tr</sup> aged three and ffourty yeares or thereabouts upon oath examined saith and Deposeth as foll (viz.)

That the thirtyeth day of October last past he this Deponent being in a small Shallop of his owne, in the Bay of Chesepeake neere against the house of M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Courtney, and within the bounds of this Province of Maryland, there came on board him a boate belonging to a mann of Warr Ketch Cap<sup>t</sup> Thomas Allen Command<sup>r</sup> (as he hath since been informed) and commanded him the Dep<sup>t</sup> on board the said Ketch whereto he pleaded that he had noe person else on board him that could