

Lib. R. R. R. humbly beggs pardon and submitts himself to their Hono^{rs} alledging in his behalf that his Offence particularly in the business of Coll Talbott was chiefly through the meanes of the hon^{ble} Coll Henry Coursey, advising him to suspend putting the same in execution untill such time as Coll Talbotts Lett^r might come to their Hono^{rs} hands. He is advised for the future to mind onely such warr^{ts} and precepts as are or shall be directed to him, and putt them in execution according to the Duty of his place, he is remitted upon his submission for what is past, and ordered to bring before this board Swithen Wells and Henry Higges as formerly required.

p. 228

Higges Henry app. sub: and discharge

Came Henry Higges of Cecil County according to precept he humbly submitts acknowledging his Office, promises amendm^t begs pardon and hath it granted, whereupon he is discharged with his surety of their Recogniz^{ce}

John Estes pet. of Comp^{lt} ag^t Lynch Jaspar

To the hon^{ble} his L^{sp}s Councill

The petition of John Estes Command^r of the Shipp Providence of Deale in the Kingdome of England.
humbly sheweth

Unto your Hon^{rs} that your pet^r being by Charter partie bound and obleiged to waite on and attend the ord^{rs} and Instructions of M^r Jaspar Lynch M^rchant for the space of eight moneths certain, and four uncertain, and to be discharged in some part of England, Holland, or fflanders, haveing accordingly performed his sett time certain agreed on, and demanded whither he may be further employed for the remaineing time uncertain as aforesaid, hath been positively answered that there is noe further occasion, but cann by noe meanes procure a discharge from the said Lynch whereby he may be enabled lawfully to make an end of his voyage homewards, by w^{ch} meanes he is endangered not only to runn the hazard of destroying his shipp by the worme, seasoning himself and marrin^{ts} here to the ruine of his voyage, but also is deprived of makeing any advantage of a ffreight towards the defraying of his charges as he is ready and cann make appeare to y^r Hono^{rs} he hath been offered, if he had liberty to accept thereof

He therefore humbly prayes that the s^d Lynch may be called before your Hono^{rs} and shew his reasons (if any he hath) why & wherefore he will not (as in reason law and conscience he ought) discharge your Pet^r under his hand & seale, w^{ch} he desires he may be obleiged to doe

And he shall pray &c.