Depositions in his behalf as foll (viz:)

James Ellis Depos:

James Ellis of Anne Arrundell County maketh oath that he the said Deponent came to the house of M^r Robert ffrancklyn then high sheriff of the said County in June or July being the summer before he dyed, And the said ffrancklyn then in his Porch told the said Deponent that he had accompted with the two greate Gods of the Earth (meaneing Coll Taillor & Coll Burges) upon which the said Deponent asked the said ffrancklyn, whither he found Creditt given him for all the tobaccos recd: by him the Deponent for the use of Coll Taillor, who answered and said that he had, and if ever it lay in his power to serve him (the said Coll Tailler meaneing) he would be ever ready, for I owe him (the said Taylor meaneing) a greate quantity of Tobaccos, and he the said Taylor never asked for one lyne from und^r my hand; and as for Coll Burges I had much to doe to pswade him to take my bond for what I owed him (meaneing the said Burges) without 10 p C^t forbearance: And further the said Dep^t saith, that he did heare the s^d ffrancklyn say that he the s^d ffrancklyn had ballanced all his private accompts with Coll Taylor the first
