

Liber R. Each of them were severally interrogated and made reply as foll viz. being duely sworne.

Int. M<sup>r</sup> Beaumont, what have you heard Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall say at Boydens and Taylors house or else where at any time concerning King and Parliam<sup>t</sup> and of Warrs in England?

Beau: Never any thing to my knowledge

Int. Did not Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall say that it was noe treason to say any thing:

Bea: I never heard him

Int. Did he never say that the people of this Province were fooles if they paid any taxes?

Beau: Not that I have heard

Int. And did he not say My Lord Prop<sup>ry</sup> was a Traytour?

Answ. I cannot say he did

p. 276 Int: What other discourse in relation to publick affaires have you had at any time with Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall?

Beau: I cannot Remember any.

Ordered that James Beaumont Enter into Recognizance at the Secrys Office for his appeareance at the next Prov<sup>l</sup> Court

Int. Thomas Humphryes what have you heard Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall say concerning warrs betweene King and Parliam<sup>t</sup> in England?

Ans: Never anything I have not been soe familiar at any time with him as to heare him say any such thing

Int: Did you not heare him say that it was noe treason to say any thing?

Answ: Never. It is probable that I may have been some times in the Roome when Capt. ffendall has been in discourse but never to stay soe long as to take notice of what he said I never had that familiarity with him.

Int. Did not Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall say that my Lord was a Traytour and the people fooles if they paid any taxes?

Ans. I never heard him

Int. What men were those that Samuel ffendall went to fetch over out of Virginia, when his Brother was taken?

Answ: When Cap<sup>t</sup> ffendall was taken, I went with Madam ffendall over the River to Notley Hall, and when wee returned Samuel ffendall was gone and as I since understand into Virg<sup>a</sup> but wherefore or upon what Acco<sup>t</sup> I know not

Int. Samuel ffendall upon what Acco<sup>t</sup> were you sent into Virginia?

Answ. I was not sent at all but went of my owne accord.

Int. What men did you gett there?

Answ. I went for none, I went to gett a Shallop built

Int. for what occasion? what business had you for a Shallop?

Answ. to hyre out to Shipps