

to discend to particulars with them in that treaty and that they have a Latitude of Discretion left with them so farr as the Government, shall think fitt and convenient particularly about the place of their being if proposed L. H. J.

6^{thly} That according to the first proposalls to the Indians, We conceive that some sober and discreet persons being appointed nerely resident to [every one] of the Indian Towns to heare and determine any complaint, either of the Indians or English, with one another.

And the determinations of such persons shall be binding to both partyes unless the matter be of so great moment as to require an appeale to the Governo^r and Councill in such cases if either of the persons to heare and to determine the matter thinke fitt, or either of the partyes desire an appeale to the Gov^r and Councill they shall be there transmitted with their complaint. p. 142

Then the Comitee proceed to examine the Reporte of Col^o Hutchison whereby those Indians seem charged with Entertainment of Strange Indians and turning out the Empero^r and choosing a new one without the Governo^{rs} consent and approbation contrary to Articles.

We propose that the Indians may be sent fore before the Gov^r and Councill and they cautioned of that their breach; and the new chosen Empero^r either confirmed or revoked as thought fitt.

And if the Governor and Councill thinks fitt to pass this error by for the present that yet they be cautioned to give no more occasions for that they will not be endured.

And that if any strange Indians for the future come to them It shall be sufficient for them to give notice to the persons appointed, of the number and nation of such Strangers.

7th Then as to the Comp^{ll} of the Indians to Col: Courts of the violence offerred them by M^r Joshua Doyne and the misunderstanding between them and Madam Blackstone, We propose that the partyes be sent for before the Gov^r and Councill and the matter to be there heard and determined as in their Wisdom shall be thought fitt, and for the future all such complaints to be heard and determined by the persons appointed for that purpose.

8th That because there happens many complaints about the bounds of the Indians Lands, and many Jealousies may arise about it.

We therefore propose that the persons to be appointed to heare and determine such differences do call to their assistance six or eight of the most substantiall neighbours living in the Towne, and heare and determine the Indians claims according to the best testimony that they can gett, lay out the bounds of
