At a Council &cᵃ October the 7ᵗʰ 1695.   Lib. H. D.

New York Business again recommended to the House, and that they give some answer to the papers touching the same now lying before them (to wit) his Excell the Governʳ of New Yorks Letter &cᵃ and withall proposed that the House would make vp at least so much money in proportion as Virginia hath given towards the defence of that Governmᵗ

By the House of Burgesses, Octobʳ the 7ᵗʰ 1695   Whitehall

Capᵗ Tasker one of the Members of the House pʳsents his Excell Coll Benjamin ffletcher his Maᵗˢ Governʳ of New York's Letter sent from his Excell & his Maᵗˢ honoᵇˡᵉ Councill for the pervsall of this House which was read & Referred for further consideration vntill to Morrow Morning.

By the House of Burgesses, October 8ᵗʰ 1695.   Whitehall

Vpon his Exⁿᶜⁱᵉˢ recommendation to the House that they would consider of some means to comply with her late Maᵗˢ Commands in relation to the affording assistance to New York; therevpon Resolved that his Majesty be further addressed, thereby remonstrating how vncapable We are of affording such assistance.   p. 256

By his Excellency the Governʳ &cᵃ Octobʳ 10ᵗʰ 1695   Whitehall

Laid before the House a Letter of the honoᵇˡᵉ the Councill of New York vnto his Excell sent & directed, Dated 9ᵗʰ of September last past, together with certain propositions of the ffive Nations of Indians in the sᵈ Letter inclosed for the pervsall & consideration of the House.

By his Excellency the Governʳ & Councill in Assembly.   Whitehall
October the 14ᵗʰ 1695.

Vpon reading over severall Resolves of the House of Delegates & Burgesses in answer to severall Proposalls made to them from this Board, it is observed that they have given no answer to that part of a former proposall sent them relating to New York Affair, touching the making vp at least so much Money in proportion as Virginia hath given; therefore do propose that the Act for the additionall Duty of 3ᵈ ℔ hogshead be continued for that purpose; His Excell being willing to advance Money vpon credit thereof, if wanting.