[Gov. Johnson to Capt. Ross.]

Annapolis 27th May 1778.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Ross.

You are to proceed with your Schooner to Patowmack Creek in Virginia and there apply for and lade as much of the Continental Pork as your vessel will carry. I do not know whose Care the Pork is under, or I would write to him. You are to take a Memorandum of the Quantity, signed by the Person who delivers it to you; with it you are to proceed to the Head of Elk, deliver it to Col<sup>o</sup> Henry Hollingsworth or his Agent and take his Receipt. If you should be disappointed in getting the Pork at Pat<sup>o</sup> Creek, in your Way down, call on M<sup>r</sup> Bernard ONeal on Wiccomico, S<sup>t</sup> Mary's County and take in the Provisions he has, or any other Public Stores, so as to
