Sir

As it is of importance that the Operations of the Enemy should be known to every State which may be particularly affected by them, I now transmit to your Excellency a copy of a Letter from General Washington respecting a late embarkation of Troops at New York. Their destination is uncertain, but it is generally supposed they are bound to the Southern part of this Continent.

I have the honor to be with Respect & Esteem,

Your Excellency's most obed<sup>t</sup> Servant

John Jay

His Excellency Governor Johnson
