

Original Journal. That the Designe of the Bill is to secure yo<sup>r</sup> Children and posterity's from Clandestine Marriages, and certainly none but papists or their Favourers can be against the Bill the passing whereof is thought

Sign'd p ord<sup>r</sup>
W Bladen Cl: Concil

Then Came the following Message from the house of Delegates by Cap<sup>t</sup> Jacob Moreland & Docter Jacob Lookerman Viz<sup>t</sup>

By the house Delegates Novemb the 10th 1698

The Message by the hon<sup>ble</sup> Thomas Tench and James Frisby Esq<sup>rs</sup> of even date was here received And as to the £800 which your Ex<sup>cy</sup> and Council are pleased to apply towards the defraying of the publick Charge this house does Concur to be p<sup>d</sup> at the price proposed

And as to appointing of some of the members of this house to Joyne with the hon<sup>ble</sup> Thomas Tench Esq<sup>r</sup> in ord<sup>r</sup> to State the Reveñue

This house has appointed Major John Hamond Cap<sup>t</sup> Rich<sup>d</sup> Hill and M<sup>r</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Young and have given them power and Authority to call before them all such p<sup>rs</sup>ons as they shall see Convenient to which power We pray yo<sup>r</sup> Ex<sup>cys</sup> Concurrance

Sign'd p Ord<sup>r</sup>
C: Gregory Cl house Del.

p. 42 The which was assented to by his Ex<sup>cy</sup> the Gov<sup>r</sup> & This Board.

Then sent to the house Delegates the ffollowing Message viz<sup>t</sup>

By his Ex<sup>cy</sup> the Gov<sup>r</sup> and Council in Assembly
Novemb the 10th 1698.

Proposed that for the Support of poor Diseased and lame persons, If it shall please God that the Coole Springs do continue to make the like Cures as lately that the house would appropriate one hundred pounds of the mony that is in Bancke (besides the £800 now allotted toward the Discharge of the Levy) for the building of small Tenements at the s<sup>d</sup> Coole Springs for the Entertainm<sup>t</sup> of such lame diseased pesons as shall restore thither for Cure of their Lameness & Diseases

It is hoped that before the Sev<sup>r</sup>all Acts for Imposicōns & are expired there will arise thereon to the Country near eight or nine hundred pounds Sterl