

Original Journal. P. 53	Richard Tilghman Thomas Saunders William Taylard John Carvile Hans Hanson Thomas Beale William Harris Richard Hill John Bozman Sam <sup>ll</sup> Cullens	}	John Wight Will: Smith Ninian Beale Thomas Staley John Leach Thomas Ennalls Thomas Hicks Jacob Lockerman Henry Hawkins James Smallwood	}	of the house of Dele- gates.
	Francis Jenkins Walter Lane Thomas Smith Symon Willmor John Thompson John Whittington Jacob Moreland	}	Sam <sup>ll</sup> Young William Hutchison John Lowe John ferry John Hall Michael Miller	}
	Philip Lynes foreman Willam Comegys Chr: Greenberry Ephraim Willson Charles Bevin Ambros Kinemont Humphrey Tilton	}	Charles Tilden Aron Tinuse John Rawlins Peter Wats John Emerson Thomas Atterbury W <sup>m</sup> Watts W <sup>m</sup> Mills Thomas Killman	}	Grand Jury

Then his Ex<sup>ncy</sup> was pleased to tell the house that he was hearty Sorry they had been so long upon the Countrys busienss which might have been much sooner dispatched had not their owne private heates Jarrs and Animosity Interupted it, But forasmuch as that he hopes they are all now buried in the Depth of Oblivion he is not willing to revive them againe.

As to the Gent<sup>n</sup> of his Ma<sup>tys</sup> hon<sup>ble</sup> Council he does on his Ma<sup>tys</sup> behalfe returne them thanks for their Zeale to his Ma<sup>tys</sup> Service & asure them he will reco<sup>m</sup>end the same to his Ma<sup>ty</sup>

And for as much as he hoped all differrences were reconciled and forgott he would not make any distinction or seperation among the Gent<sup>n</sup> of the house of Delegates for that he was willing to beleve what happened was through Inad-uertency

P. 54 And as he had a great Esteem for all persons that had shewed themselves truly loyall to his ma<sup>ty</sup> so when occasion offered he would not omitt to shew by the best services he might do them