

Lib. X. I shall trouble your Honour with a more particular Account of our proceedings in this Matter but this is at the request of these Indians to accompany them from your Honours

Most Obedient humble Servant
Cha Calvert

And afterwards the Governor is pleased to speak to them as follows viz^t

My Good Friends

Because I would have you and all our good Friends to grow rich and happy I earnestly advise you to take care to preserve yourselves and not to go to war with any of your Neighbours when you may live in peace for twenty Scalps is not so good to you as the Saving one of your Brothers or Children alive

And thereupon the Governor delivers to the said Ghesaont two Stroud Match Coats and one stroud Match Coat to each of the others in token of his Friendship with them and a stroud Match Coat to each of the Interpreters for their Service

And afterwards the Governor is pleased further to say I wish you a Good Journey to Virginia and that you may all be Friends and I shall be glad to see you as you come back from Virginia and so farewell

Afterwards the Governor sends for Liquors to drink with
p. 9 the said Indians the following healths and have Five of the Great Guns fired on drinking of each health which was accordingly perform'd which healths so drunk are as follows
Viz^t

We wish well to our Great King George

We wish well to the Lord Baltimore Lord proprietary of this province

We wish well to your Great King and all our Indians Friends

We wish peace and Friendship betwixt us Christian and all our friend Indians forever

The Governor signed a pass for the said Indians to the Several Ferry men of South patuxent and patomack Rivers to suffer the said Indians to pass over the said ferrys without pay the said ferrymen to be paid by the publick

Ordered by the Board that an express be sent with a Copy of these proceedings to the Governor of Virginia

His Honour the Governors Letter to the Governor of Virginia about the Indian Affairs is as follows Viz^t