Kaom Hac Ghea Tae and Dac Kâ ae Eugh Kings of Kio Gûgh and Hannashannaegas King of Ondowah appeared before the Board and acquainted the Governor and Council by John Webster and an Indian Woman their Interpreters that understanding by some English Traders and several Indians that the Governor desired to see them they were now come down on purpose for that end they therefore desire to know what answer they shall return to their Town and five Nations and how the Governor likes their visit

His Excellency and the Board taking the same into their Consideration do Agree to the following Answer vizt   p. 95

That as they came from our Friends the Sinica Indians for whom this Government has a just Esteem and Friendship the Governor and Council are Glad to see them and tho they never had sent for them yet in regard they were our Friends and had come down to visit Us the Governor and Board thought fit to Give their three Kings each one Blue Stroud Match Coat and to their War Captain and Woman Interpreter each one Red Stroud Match Coat but that they had nothing else to Offer only that this Governm^t will always be Glad to maintain peace and Amity with them so long as they Behaved themselves in a friendly manner towards us
