

Seven Doeskins he had for securing the paym^t thereof pawned to the said Taylor one Belt of Peak to the Value of fifty Doeskins who has Converted it wholly to his own use tho the said Indian had tendered him pay and refuses to pay to the said Indian the forty three Doeskins due to the said Indian on ballance

Original
Journal.

Ordered that Col Ennalls caution the said Taylor to comply with the said Indian

His Ex^{cy} was pleased to send the following Paragraph of a Letter to him by M^r Smith and Col Hammond to the Speaker of the House of Delegates according to the Desire of the House viz^t

September the 11th. 1704

M^r Speaker the Paragraph underwritten came in a Letter to me from an Eminent Merchant in London dated the 6th of February 1703/4

Sir I must by the by hint of a Design New York hath of making all the Colonies Tributarys to them in order to Support or rather enrich them and they seem to push the thing for the Half as to have a number to be chosen out of the Northern and Southern Governments to represent these Colonies and meet at New York instead of their own Assemblies and to have one Vice Roy and General of all the forces of the Continent and that of Virginia and Maryland &c to be dependents under them a Project to this Effect is Lodged with the Lords

John Seymour

The following Message sent to the House by Col Jenkins and M^r Cheseldyne Viz.

By his Excellency the Governour & Council

Sep^r 11th 1704.

Gentlemen By a good Providence and a cheerful Assistance of the Publick and other worthy Gentlemen The Church in this town is now in such forwardness that with the blessing of Almighty God we have proposed to have divine Service celebrated therein upon Sunday the 24th Inst^t at which time the Sacrament will be administred, therefore to the End we may open the said Church with the greatest Solemnity we are capable of here in this remote part of the World we desire M^r Speaker and the House of Delegates will Concur to accompany his Ex^{cy} and this Board at the said Church at the Time af^d

Signed p order W: Bladen Cl Coun.