

arrival M<sup>r</sup> Brook says he did say mass in the Court Time at the Chappel of S<sup>t</sup> Mar<sup>ies</sup> but found that others had formerly done so Original Journal.

Advised that this being the first Complaint the said M<sup>r</sup> Hunter & M<sup>r</sup> Brooke be severely reprimanded and told that they must not Expect any Favor but the utmost Severity of the Law upon any misdeameanour by them committed and being called in his Ex<sup>cy</sup> was pleased to give them the following Reprimand Viz.

Gentlemen

It is the unhappy Temper of you and all your Tribe to grow insolent upon Civility and never know how to use it and yet of all People you have the least reason for considering that if the necessary Laws that are made were let loose they are Sufficient to crush you and which (if your arrogant Principles have not blinded you) you must need to dread.

You might methinks be Content to live quietly as you may and let the Exercise of your Superstitious Vanities be confined to yourselves without proclaiming them at publick Times and in publick places unless you expect by your gawdy shows and Serpentine Policy to amuse the multitude and beguile the unthinking weakest part of them an Act of Deceit well known to be amongst you

But Gentlemen be not deceived for tho the Clemency of her Majest<sup>ies</sup> Government and of her gracious inclinations leads her to make all her Subjects Easy that know how to be so yet her Majesty is not without means to curb Insolence but more especialy in your Fraternity who are more eminently than others abounding with it, and I assure you the next occasion you give me you shall find the Truth of what I say which you should now do but that I am willing upon the earnest Sollicitations of some Gentlemen to make one tryal (and it shall be but this one) of your temper

In plain and few words Gentlemen if you intend to live here let me hear no more of these things for if I do and they are made good against you be assured I'll chastize you, and least you should flatter yourselves that the Severit<sup>ies</sup> of the Laws will be a means to move the pity of your Judges I assure you I do not intend to deal with you so I'll remove the Evil by sending you where you may be dealt with as you deserve

Therefore as I told you I'll make but this one Tryal and advise you to be civil and Modest for there is no other way for you to live quietly here.

You are the first that have given any disturbance to my Government and if it were not for the hopes of your better
