A Proclamation

Whereas notwithstanding all the friendly Overtures and Proposals made by this Government for preserving the Peace and Quietness of the Inhabitants on the Borders of this Province and the Province of Pensilvania several ill minded Persons have endeavoured by many false and scandalous Insinuations to withdraw and seduce the unwary and Credulous from that Subjection and Obedience which they owe to the Government of the Lord Proprietary of this Province under the supreme Dominion of his Majesty, not only for the Protection & security which they enjoyed but also for the great Indulgencies and Other favours shewed them; And for the better effecting their pernicious Purposes aforesaid, the Authority of the honourable the high Court of Chancery of Great Britain, and Even the sacred Name of his most Gracious Majesty have been in a daring presumptuous and unjustifiable Manner used and pretended, All which Methods and Practices not only awed and influenced several Persons into a most unwarrantable Combination and Resolution to transfer their Obedience from this Government to the Government of Pensilvania, but also further tended so greatly to Confusion amongst his Majestys
