

Annapolis 30th July 1747 Lib. C. B.

Sir

Your favour of the 29th of last Month which I received a few Days ago, was this Day laid before the Council, and although We are truly sensible of the Importance of the Friendship of the Six Nations at this Juncture, yet there being no Fund from which This Government can make any Advance of Money for this Purpose, It is entirely impracticable for Us to answer your Expectation by Our Authority only; And as you have before this time seen by the Address made to me by the Lower house of Assembly in Answer to my Message on the subject of your former Letter; how vain It would be to call an Assembly at present, I can only express my Concern, that it is not in my Power to contribute to this necessary Business otherwise than by assuring you I shall not omit any Opportunity which I can think may be favourable for promoting his Majestys Service and Our Common Welfare

I am Sir

To His Exc<sup>y</sup> William                      Your most Obedient and Shirly Esq<sup>r</sup> Governor of                      most humble Servant
New England.    Sam: Ogle
