came into this Dep^{ts} house, and that One of them whose name is Dunbarr, endeavoured to perswade this Deponents husband to turn Tenant to Pensilvania saying, that Esquire Penn was as able and full as willing to stand by them, as the Lord Baltimore ever had been or would be, and upon this Deponents husbands Refusal, he the said Dunbarr asked him if he would sell the Land he held by Patent, under the Lord Baltimore which as this Deponent hath often heard is the Way, that the Pensilvanians propose to get Possession of the Lands in those Parts now held by the Lord Baltimore in Case they cant drive the Possessors of the said Land off by force

Province of Pensilvania

A Proclamation

Whereas we have received certain Information, that a Body of near three hundred Men in Arms, in a warlike manner entered the County of Lancaster in this Province, and on Sunday the fifth Instant, with beat of Drum, and Sound of Trumpet, advanced to the Plantation late of John Hendricks on the West Side of Susquehannah, lying several Miles more Northerly than the City of Philadelphia, with Intent, as 'tis said, to oust by Force several of his Majestys Subjects Inhabitants of that County, of their Possessions, and to awe and terrify Others into an Acknowledgm^t of the Dominion and Jurisdiction of the Lord Proprietor of Maryland, over those Parts of the Country, lying upwards of Twenty Miles to the Northward of the East and West Line, which, by a solemn Agreement entered into by the honourable the Proprietaries of Pensilvania and the said Lord Proprietor of Maryland, now subsisting, and under the Cognizance of his Majestys high Court of Chancery, was fixed and established as the Boundary of their respective Provinces: Which military Preparation and Invasion hath by the Conduct and Resolution of Our Inhabitants on this Occasion, been happily frustrated, And whereas these extraordinary Proceedings, in spreading Uneasiness and Terror amongst the Inhabitants, and thereby hindering them from the Pursuit of their lawful Business and Occupations, are not only altogether unjustifiable between the Subjects of the same Gracious Sovereign, whose diffusive Goodness and Care for their Welfare & Security equally extend to all, but must undoubtedly be construed a Levying of War against his Subjects of this Province,
