

U. H. J. former Assemblys and as oft denied any Allowance) That
 p. 834 Constitution being made without the Consent of this House who always saw the ill Convenience thereof and though you are pleased to say the Charge of the Provincial Court was considerably lessened thereby yet we are certain the Charges brought in & demanded from the publick were augmented, What Trouble and Expences those Gentlemen were at on occasion of riding the Circuits or what Damages they may suffer in their Estates thereby This House were never the occasion of And as they never on behalf of the publick requested or acquiesced in any thing relating to those Commissions for the Assizes but always shewed their aversion thereto, so they think it very unreasonable the Country should be burthened with the Charge but that those that set them to work ought to pay them for their Charges Trouble & Expences
