

L. H. J. Displeasure (as 'tis to be feared she may) at your Neglect or Lib. 4<sup>r</sup> Contempt we hope we shall not fall under it but if any Hardships should hereafter be put on the Country on this Score p. 419 you will be found to be those who have neglected the true Interest of it and involve us in such Misfortunes This we must needs assert and cannot but leave it on our Journal that it may plainly appear whether you or we have the truest Sense of and Regard to her Majesty's Honour and the Interest of the Province we in demanding or you in refusing so usual reasonable and necessary a Conference which we cannot but yet expect from you.
