Which being read this Board Concur therewith save only that they think that the Treasurer's Sallary is not any recompence for his Service in negotiating the Bills arising on that Revenue in England which may lye in his Hands some years and not be applyed if not otherwise directed by this Act and p. 283 therefore We desire he might have his full Sallary and that you will name some responsible Merch^t in England to whom he may remitt the s^d Revenue for Arms And that It lye at the Country's risque We also think that the Naval Officers will Scarce get a Copy of this long Law under £200 tob^o

We are likewise of Opinion that your House was mistaken as to that part of a Paragraph of the Lord Proprietary's Letter communicated to you relating to the paym^t of the Rents & Alienation Fines, Wherefore we again propose it to you that a Clause be put into this Bill obliging the Several Tenants to make speedy payment of their Arrears of Rent & Alienation Fines due from the Time of the Death of Charles Lord Baron of Baltimore deceased until the Commencement of this Act And as the most effectual means thereof It is proposed that It be done by Way of execution
