

For which Reason they have agreed that there ought to be two thousand Men employed in the Defence of that valuable province of South Carolina, and to secure Georgia, and that they should be composed as follows. Lib. J. R.
& U. S.

Five Companies of Regular Troops	500
Three independant Companies	200
Provincial Troops, raised by the Province of South Carolina	500
Provincial Troops from North Carolina	200
Provincial Troops from Virginia	400
Provincial Troops from Pensilvania	200
making in the Whole	2000 Men.

That the said Troops should be put under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Bouquet and transported to Charles Town in South Carolina as soon as possible, the regular Troops and the two hundred provincial Troops of Pensilvania by Sea from hence,

The four hundred Provincial Troops of Virginia by Sea from and the two hundred Troops from North Carolina to march by Land.

The Earl of Loudoun on the Part of the Crown agrees, that he will at the Kings Expencc supply the two hundred Men from North Carolina, the 400 Men from Virginia, and the two hundred from Pensilvania, with the Kings provisions from the time they arrive in South Carolina during the Time he keeps them there, but that he expects the several provinces from whence they are detached should transport them there at the Expencc of the Province from whence they are sent.

And to prevent any Mistake hereafter arising in Relation to any Demand that may be made It's agreed that the several Provinces shall maintain the Remainder of the Troops raised by them for the Service in every Article, as on this Occasion they are intirely employed in the Defence and for the Security of their respective Colonies. p. 160

And it is further agreed that we the Governors shall in our respective Provinces take particular Care to form such Regulations and to see them properly executed, that in all time coming Carriages for transporting the Baggage of his Majesty's Troops shall be prepared at stated reasonable Rates, and that all the Troops of whatever Denomination, either passing through our provinces, or while in fixed Quarters therein shall in time of Peace be properly quartered,
