

Lib. J. R. Webb will not I am afraid be able to stop their Progress & U. S. surely the Colonies will now exert themselves, and lose no Time to raise all the Forces they can. I am

Sir

Your most obedient humble Serv^t
Please to forward the Intelligence William Denny.
to Governor Dinwiddie Governor Sharpe—

New York 6.. Aug^t 1757..

Sir

Lieutenant Governor Delancey embarked Yesterday for Albany and we just now received by Express from thence the two several Letters directed to him of which we send you inclosed Copies and remain Sir

Your most obedient Servant
Arch^d Kennedy.

Copy examined by Richard Peters Secretary:
Governor Denny:

Albany 4th Aug^t 12 o'Clock in the Afternoon

Sir

p. 198 This Moment I have received an Express from General Webb informing a large Body of the Enemy to the Amount of 1100 have landed, and invested Fort William Henry that for Want of Men is in no Condition to relieve it having previously sent all he had to a few left with him at Fort Edward desires further for me to write to all the Governors, Colonels of Militia &c. as the Fate of this Province depends upon it I have now sent Expresses to the Northern Governors which I understand is what he means if you think otherwise I beg you'l write to the southern also as well as to the Northern Governors again to enforce upon them raising all the Men they can.

I am

Your most obedient Servant
G.. Christie Captain in the 48th Reg^t & A.. D.. 2 M G.
A true Copy examined by John Goodby.

Copy examined by Richard Peters Secretary
To James Delancey Esq^r Lieutenant Governor of the province of New York.

F E August 3^d 12.. Night

Sir

I am directed by General Webb to acquaint you that this Morning F. W. H. was invested and a large Number of