

Maryland that the reputed Line or Division Between the province of Maryland and Sussex County run from the plantation of Abraham Ingram Scituate on a Beaver Dam, and is the same plantation where this deponent has always understood from the Bordering people that the Dispute arose on between Adam Mecor and Bethel Watson about the seniority of their grants and that the reputed Bounds of Pensylvania and Maryland Run from the said plantation abot three Miles West to the plantation of George Bishops, who held himself in Maryland and from thence North to Edward Carys about one Mile distance who held himself in Pensylvania and from thence Northerly to the plantation Where Margaret Cronin now lives on and that the Plantation where John Willys lives on (whom this Deponent heard Shot the Under Sheriff William Outten) lives about one Mile to the Southward of the said George Bishops Plantation which said Willys Plantation was about five years Last past Surveyed by William Shanklin Surveyor of Sussex County for Ephraim Pollock in the presence of this Deponent who was by and present at the making the said Survey and that to the Southward of the said Bishops plantation, to his knowledge for thirty years Last past was never claimed as any part of pensylvania till Since the Running of the West Line from Fenwicks Island and further this Deponent saith not Taken and Sworn the 9th day of March 1759 before me

John Pollock
Rob^t Jenkins Henry.

Lib. J. R.
& U. S.

Maryland Worcester County to wit

p. 291

Andrew Collins of Worcester County aged Forty seven years or thereabouts being Sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God Deposeth as follows That this Deponent resides about two miles to the Southwestward of the Drains of Nanticoke River which this Deponent hath been Informed was the Division between the two Governments of Maryland and Pensylvania and hath understood the Same ever since this Deponent Resided there which hath been about Twenty six years past and further saith that a Certain John Willy (who as it is reported shot William Outten one of the Sub sheriffs of Worcester County) lives About twoo miles to the northwestward of this Deponent, and Also to the Westward of the Drains afs^d and hath always understood the said Willey Lived within the Reputed Ancient Lines of Maryland and this Deponent further sais that to the best of his Remembrance about Twenty years ago there was one John Willy Uncle to the above named John who wanted to take up a piece of Land under Lord Baltimore near to which