Dear Sir

The Bearers of this letter desired I would Recommend them to you as they are going to War against their Natural Enemies the Southern Indians that you would give them a Pass to go through Virginia, and Recommend them to the Peoples Hospitality, And as the War between the Northern and Southern Indians May Employ those restless Savages against each other if the province would allow them some little Provisions as they Pass and Cross their Frontiers I am of Opinion it would answer a good End.

To conclude with my Compliments to you & yours
