

Humbly Referred to your Excellency and Honours to do U.H.J. therein what may be thought Necessary.

Signed p order Mic. Jenifer Cl. Lo. Ho.

On Reading whereof and hearing the parties Concerned in this Complaint,

It is the Opinion of this House that the Justices have not done their Duty in not Restoring to Rebecca Brannock the mother of the s^d minor the Possession of the Land whereon the Jury found the Force to be Comitted.

Col Edward Scott and three more bring from the Lower House, A Supplementary Bill to the Act Directing the manner of Electing & Sumoning Delegates & Representatives to serve in succeeding Assemblys &c. Past by the Lower House and being Read in this House,

Resolved that M^r Attorney Generall be Consulted whether, that Part of the Bill Relating to Papists having their Votes at Elections be Repugnant to the Laws of England or not p. 38

Which he is Required to Certify under his hand

A Copy of the above Order being Sent by Col Addison & M^r Henry Lowe, they Return & say they Delivered it, And that M^r Attorney Gen^l Desires leave till the morning to Consider it.

The House Adjourns till to morrow Morning

Tuesday Aprill 29. 1718

This house meet according to Adjournment

Present as yesterday, with the Addition of Tho^s Brook Esq^r

The following message being prepared is Sent to the Lower house as foll

By the Uper House of Assembly

Aprill 29th 1718

Gent. Believing it will be great Satisfaction to your house We have now Communicated a Letter We have had the Honour to Receive from the Right Honourable the Lords Guilford & Baltemore, by which you will Observe how ready their Ldships are to Support their Authority, And strengthen the Hands of those Comissioned for the Distribution of Justice against the bold & Insolent Attempts of M^r Macnemara, not only in the Chancery, but to some of our Knowledge in the Prov^l Court. p. 39

So Seasonable a piece of Justice in their Lordships, we hope may have an Influence on those (had this gone with Impunity) who might have followed his Evill Example of flying in the