Gentlemen: On my undertaking the building of the Magazine for Arms the Country allow'd me 500<sup>t</sup> Sterling and in the next Assembly following fifty pounds more of which I have made out an Account at the Bottom of this But as I find there is only an Ordinance of Assembly and no Direction to any particular persons to pay the 550<sup>t</sup> Sterl. above menconed, Coll<sup>o</sup> Young who is your Treasurer did not think it advisable to pay me the Ballance you will find due to me.

I therefore desire you will please to direct the Treasurer to pay me that Ballance or by the hands of any other person as you shall direct
