They return and say they delivered it.

Esq<sup>r</sup> Lowe from the upper House Delivers M<sup>r</sup> Speaker the following Message viz:

By the Upper House of Assembly
May the 6th 1718.

Gent.

On reading your Message by M<sup>r</sup> Rob<sup>t</sup> Tyler and M<sup>r</sup> John Ward We perceive that you have made a Computacon of the Value of the workmanship Of the Magazine built by Thomas Cooke And that you have resolved that he shall have One hundred Pounds Sterling more for finishing the Same. This house desires you to Acquaint them whether he made any Proposicons to you of what Work yet remains unfinisht th<sup>t</sup>
