

U. H. J. said Brown's Evidence can be procured dureing this Sessions, Otherwise It might be referred

The Gentl Conferrees of the Low<sup>r</sup> House having duly Considered of the above Proposition do Conceive that as this Sessions is likely very Speedily to Conclude, And that Entring upon this Affair would phaps be a means to Continue the same a Considerable time Longer they think it more for the Intrrest of the Country to Continue the former resolution of referring the Same to the Next Sessions.

Signed p Order Phill Hamond Cl Conf.

Which being read It's Resolved by this House that the Affair af<sup>d</sup> so farr as it relates to the Conduct and Character of the af<sup>d</sup> Col Addison And the other Land Com<sup>rs</sup> is properly Cognizable before this house And that the af<sup>d</sup> Mark Brown be sent for and have Orders for the bringing of his Evidences with all Conven<sup>t</sup> speed to prove his Allegations in His said Petition set forth this Sessions.

His Excy the Gov<sup>r</sup> informs this house that Col. Tho<sup>s</sup> Addison a member thereof has been affronted by Dan<sup>l</sup> Dulany a Practitioner of the Law by Calling him a Little Rascalous Fellow

And Desires of this House to know what redress can be p. 53 made to that member Considering that as his Excellency is pleased to Observe that the said Col. Addison is an honest Protestant and Lover of the King and Country And that the said Dan<sup>l</sup> Dulany is a noted favourer of the Papists.
