Gen<sup>t</sup>

We are clearly of opinion with that of your house communicated to us by your Message of the 15th Instant and are equally surprised at the effect of our address as you are, but as the aggrievances Complained of by that address [are not] remedied but the Imposers of them rather Encouraged, by haveing their Conduct approved by the Honourable the Commissioners of the Customs, and by doing the agressors the pleasure of haveing the Impartial Conduct of our Governour as Judge in Chancery reproved, we think it is necessary to take that matter into further Consideration That as we have hitherto had no reliefe by that address we should now Endeavour to take proper Measures to render it Effectual to its first Intended Ends, since the occasion Still Continues. And as you find on Inspection that that Address justly Sets forth <sup>p. 56</sup> those aggrievances which you find to be really such, we can't but apprehend, there may have been some defect in the Presentation or Solicitation of it. We therefore now propose that his Excellency's Intended Voyage for Great Britain be laid hold on as a most favourable Oppertunity for the more effectual Solicitation of this affair, if he shall be pleased to act therein, to prevent future Impositions of like nature and that you would joyn with us in addressing him to assist us on this Occasion as you shall find necessary for the good of this Province
