Gentlemen.   The Inconveniences that Arise on the Act to Limitt the Continuance of Actions &c. or some of them we Doubt not will be made Evident to you by the observation of such Magistrates and Other Court Officers as sitt in your House but by those of this house that are Concern'd in Courts we are very well satisfied that there are great Injuries done the Subjects by the Necessity the Courts are Laid under of Giveing Judgments Against such as are hindered in there Causes by the mere hand of Providence Viz. Sickness of Magistrates or Other Officers or of the Partys or theire Evidences or other unforeseen and Inevitable Casualties, of which we have some remarkable but Melancholy Instances, which Bring Concern on the Judges Obliging them by Law to doe Injustice force Injuries and oppressions on The Subjects by there being Condemn'd if Defendants to the payment of unjust Demands or Loosing their Inheritances and bring profitt to none but the Att^{nys} and Officers by Obliging the Injured if Plaintiffs to a Renewment of their Suits.

We further Observe that the Last Provinciall Court tho itt Continued Constantly sitting till The Saturday night before
