p. 39 Gent. On reading and Considering the within Bill We think it as Reasonable that Executions out of the Comissaries Office should be Lyable to be Superseeded as well as those out of the Chancery Court But we Likewise think it highly reasonable that in all Judgments for money, Debts, or bills of Excha the Severall Courts should have it left to their Discretion to Allow or Disalow such Superseedeas as they may find it most Agreeable to the Equity of the Case which shall be resolved on and Determined at the time of the Judgm^t rendered And the Clk of the respective Courts shall note such resolution on the back of the Execution at the time of the Issuing thereof of which the Sherriff or Coroner respectively
