The following Message Prepared Consented to and Agreed upon Viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly

Aug^t the 5th. 1721

Gentlemen. Had you Concurred wth us in our Message by Esq^r Hall in relation to the Indians it might have saved the time of makeing an Act for that purpose But since you are of Opinion that the Laws already made do not Sufficently give Authority to the Governour to grant a Comission to Ascertain the bounds of the Indian Lands and to decide any Difference that may Arise thereby between the English and Indians in Dorchester County we desire you will prepare a bill for that Purpose it being an Affair of the last Consequence in order to Preserve Peace wth the Indians in Generall

Signed p Order Joh Beale Cl. Up. ho.

Sent to the Lower house by Col Tilghman who returns & says he Delivered the same
