 Mr Bordley (being sent for) appears; And being ask'd by his Honour, Whether he conceived and insisted on it, that, by Virtue of His Honour's Letter of Septem^r last he was dis-

 After Mr Bordley had withdrawn His Honour exprest himself as follows

Gentlemen of the Upper House.

 As the Lord Proprietor has an undoubted Right, to discharge as well as make a Councellor and that his appointment of one is the only Qualification, by which he is a Member of your House; I am of your opinion, that Mr Bordley's being legally discharg'd from the Council, of Course discharges him from the Upper house of Assembly And as to the Legality for what is done, I have particular Instructions from his Lordship, relating to Mr Bordley, with a full Power to dismiss him; Which I did not do, till that Gentleman gave me such Council that, if I had followed I firmly believe woud be of pernicious Consequence other member of your House may be appointed to joyn with Mr Tasker and Mr Garrett, that a final Agreement may be now made
