A further Supplementary Bill to the Act for killing Wolves &c. was read the first and second Times by Especial Ord^r and past which was so endorst and sent to the upper House by M^r Tyler and M^r King. They return and say they Delivered it.

John Rousby Esq^r from the upper House Delivers M^r Speaker the Bill for the relief of ffrancis Gandevit and John Read thus Endorst Viz:

By the Upper House of Assembly. 8^{ber} the 16th 1722

We conceive that to give Gandevit and Read an Absolute Estate of Inheritance in fee Simple in the Lands mencōned in this Bill would be to Cut off Birmingham from any Claim or Title in the s^d Lands which (by what it Appears to us) he has never yet Legally made Over to any person w^tsoever, p. 25 and not only so but would alsoe Cut off any Claim or Title from any other Person who might have a Right previous to s^d Birmingham but it appearing by Birmingham's Certificate Sealed with the Seale of New Castle that he is Willing to Acknowledge and make over the s^d Lands to the said Gandevit and Read upon their Procuring An Act of Assembly for having the said Lands in Satisfaccon for their Debt and also upon their Giving him the said Birmingham good Security to indemnifie him the said Birmingham his Heires &c: from said Riddlesden, we are of opinion that the intent of the Petitioners in Desiring an Act of Assembly in their favour is only that wee should make good the Deficiencies in Riddlesdens Deed of Conveyance for want of due Acknowledgement and give them as full right and Title in the s^d Lands as Riddlesden himself had or they should have had, had the said deed been duely Executed.

The Bill being altered according to these sentiments (as above Exprest) will pass.
