p. 128 Upon Reading the Message of Yesterday from the Lower House by Col^o Mackal and five others, the following Answer is prepared thereto (viz.)

By the Upper House of Assembly 8^{br} the 22^d 1723.
Gentlemen.

We have Read and Considered Your Message of the 21st Instant by Col^o Mackal and five others, and are of opinion that if a Law or Just & Reasonable Custom wou'd induce you to Consent to our allowances, we should have no occasion to Dispute with your House about them; for we have hitherto been sufficiently provided for by those means, as we have observed to you in Our former Messages Although your House seems to Resolve not to Regard them and Could you have given us any Reason of Weight to Avoid Our Claims,
