And his Lordships Attorney Gave in Evidence the Examination of John Ebkin signed, with his own hand wherein he Confessed he Killed the Indian, and related the manner of it; and he Confessed the said Examination to be True, and that it was Signed by his own hand.

And the Jury Returned not Guilty but Explaining that they delivered that Verdict because they understood the fact not to have been Comitted against his Lordships Peace, or [the] Kings because the Party was a Pagan, and because they had no precedent, in the neighbour Coloney of Virginia to make such facts Murther. The Governour Satisfied them that Indians were in the Peace of the King and his Lordship, and that they ought not to take notice of What other Colonies did but of the Law of England &c. And thereupon dismissed them to Consider better of it, And thus they Returned that they found him Guilty of Murther in his own defence & being told that this implied a Contradiction, they Returned to Consider better of it. And then they Returned for their Verdict that they found that he Killed the Indian in his own defence. p. 104

And the Governour Willed that the Verdict be not entred but that another Jury be Charged to Enquire and try by the same Evidence
