

State and as those Allowances Ought to be founded on Some L. H. J. Law or on a Just and reasonable Custome and there being no Law now in force, nor Custom that had any reasonable foundation that we know of We cannot recede from our former Resolutions nor Agree to put our Own Allowances which are founded on a Law in force upon the same foot with that which has none to Support it. And if it be your Hon^{rs} Resolutions not to Assent to our Allowances, which you are Con- p. 96 vinced, as we doubt not, are Just and reasonable and have a Law in force to Support them, for no Other Cause but that we will not Assent to your Honours Claims which we have given you our reasons for, we shall only Declare that your Honours make Such use of your power in this Case as we hope this House never will of theirs.

We therefore herewith send the Journall of the Committee of Accounts again to your Honours waiting your finall Answer.
