

U. H. J. ought not to be regulated being due to the Secretary as his Lordships private Officer in that respect, and not Subject to any Alteration by the Legislature

We cant help thinking that half ffees to the Gen^l Comisary for Estates under 20^t will be an ease to such Estates and sufficiently lessen the profits of that Office, where we find no ffees settled by Law for Searches, therefore desire it may be inserted

p. 88 We are further of Opinion that the Trust by this Bill reposed in the Deputy Comissarys is much too great for their abilities, and the Security by them given, therefore recommend the omitting that provisos

And we further Observe that this Law is designed to Continue for one year only, and that the Recenacting the same at the end of so short a Term, will be too great a Charge to Burthen the Countrey with, which may well be prevented by Continuing the said Law for the usual Term of three Years; with the above Alterations and Amendments this Bill herewith sent will pass
